The week of January 17th – 22nd is the celebration of National Activity Professionals Week. Our Activities staff members play a special role in improving the quality of life for our residents. The leisure and recreation activities these folks provide touch their lives and give new meaning to their days and years.

Ronda Allen, Lola Parker, Marjorie Ediger, Iris Wilkes and Gwen Edler are the general fun times and festivities, learning and living well aides that know the needs, likes & pastimes of each resident. We appreciate each of them for the unique gifts they bring to our staff and share with our residents.

Our Bingo bunch was as busy as ever this week. The biggest daily winner was Judith Winn, she also had the most bingos for the week, with Norma Moler and Homer Duke close behind her. Altogether there were 26 residents participating. Six different people completed blackouts, Judith Winn had one each day, Jr. Murphy and W.T. Bryan each had two, with Margaret Frank, Rosa Lea Skelley and Norma Moler, finishing one each.

On Thursday afternoon we'll have Cooking Class with Iris & Lola, and Friday afternoon Marjie is planning the group discussion "What's Up?". With all of our other regularly scheduled activities we will have some busy days, but there's always time to receive spur-of-the-moment visitors and any other surprises that come through the door! See you soon.
