

Cordell Christian Home's Resident's Digest

by Bonnie Kliewer

A few of our folks will be bound for Binger on Thursday this week for Area-Wide Bingo. Most of the ten facilities that take turns hosting have limited space for this event, so they put a limit on how many people can attend from each facility. We have quite a few who enjoy going, so unfortunately they have to take turns. Usually each of the participants brings back a bag full of prizes and if we're lucky, the traveling trophy. We wish the best of luck to those CCH residents who will be traveling this month.

On the home front, we had two that tied for first place in Bingos last week, Margaret Frank and Jesse Locke. Homer Duke, Janet Doughty, Margaret Frank, Judy Winn and Jr. Murphy were the black-out champs. As always we appreciate our bingo volunteers Wanita Sawatzky, Iva Gass, Phyllis and Jim Banks, and Helene McDonald for assisting and always making the bingo hour a fun time for everyone.

We also want to acknowledge the gentlemen who lead our worship services each Sunday morning. Rick Chapplelear, Van Hall, Greg Cox and Ron Mazurek graciously bring their gifts, talents and caring hearts each week so that those who are unable to go out to attend church are able to worship together right here at Cordell Christian Home. Thank you so much for your willingness to share with us.

Last Thursday Iris Wilkes and Lola Parker, Activities Aides, and some of the residents had a cooking session, making wonderful treats called pizzelles. These are thin decoratively patterned Italian wafer cookies that are made in an iron similar to a waffle iron. They shared their pretty and delicious creations with staff and other residents, leaving us all wanting more.

We wish you all a great week and as always invite you to stop by for a visit. See you soon.
