Happy New Year!! The year 2010 is upon us and we have many possibilities ahead to look forward to. We can only guess what all is in store for us. Hopefully your New Year's resolutions are all in place and you haven't broken any of them already!

This week has all of our regular activities planned. The only new one added so far is a Bible study time led by one of our residents, W.T. Bryan. This will be on Monday evening at 7:00. Resident Council will meet Tuesday afternoon. This is an important meeting that all residents are invited to participate in. It is your chance to discuss any ideas or concerns you have, or ask questions and make suggestions. The meeting includes one of the Social Services staff members, only one staff member is allowed to come to the meeting, and anything the residents discuss is anonymous if it is their desire. Hopefully many of you will be able to attend and take part.

Have a great week, enjoy the popcorn & movie on Wednesday, Story time with Marjie on Friday and good luck to you all at Bingo!

Waiting for the party to start!

"I predict nothing but continued growth and expansion for the rest of the year. But enough about my diet..."

Hooray! Hooray!
 It's New Year's Day!

Hooray! Hooray! It's New Year's Day!
 The day we start anew.
 So this year I've decided to become a kangaroo.

Or maybe I will learn to fly,
 or how to walk through walls,
 or how to turn invisible,
 or surf on waterfalls.

I'll make myself elastic
 and I'll teach myself to shrink.
 I'll turn into a liquid
 and I'll pour me down the sink.

I'll visit other planets
 and meet aliens galore.
 I'll travel to the distant past
 and ride a dinosaur.

I've got so many wondrous plans.
 I'm starting right away.
 Yes, this will be the best year yet.
 Hooray! It's New Year's Day!

World's Tallest Building Opens

The world has a new 'tallest building' – named the Burj Khalifa. It is in the Middle East in the city of Dubai. This city barely existed 10-15 years ago and has been rapidly built up with some amazing features and architecture.

This hotel has 162 floors and is 2,717 feet high, which is almost twice as tall as the Empire State Building. It took over 5 ½ years to build, from September 21, 2004 to its grand opening on Monday, January 4, 2010. The cost of the skyscraper was 1.5 billion dollars.

The grand opening included fireworks shooting out from every part of the building!
