

Merry Christmas, CCH Family!

Now that's a Picture of the Week!!

Christmas Sale

by Kenn Neshitt and Linda Klaus

Here I am on Christmas day—
I'm glad at last it came,
but Christmas gifts from Mom and Dad
are often pretty lame.

It's all because my parents
won't buy gifts till they're on sale,
so this year I got Easter candy,
even though it's stale.

They saved a lot by buying stuff
the stores might throw away,
like all these shamrock-covered hats
from last St. Patrick's Day.

They also gave me valentines,
a Halloween mask, too,
and from the end-of-summer sale,
a charcoal barbecue.

I got a beach umbrella
to protect me from the sun.
It's ten degrees below outside;
just how can that be fun?

So, Mom and Dad, please understand
I'm saving money, too.
Next Christmas don't be too surprised when these come back to you.

It's Christmas Week!! I hope everyone enjoyed the Christmas Party last Friday and now you're enjoying your Christmas presents!

It doesn't happen all that often in Oklahoma, but there is a slight chance we will have a white Christmas. Hopefully the roads will stay clear for the travelers.

Have a wonderful week everyone ~ Merry Christmas to each of you!

Verse of the Week

"Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy
that will be for all the people.
Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you;
He is Christ the Lord.

Luke 2:10-11
