

Cordell Christian Home's Resident's RDigest

By Bonnie Kliewer

The big Christmas tree is up and it is beautiful! You can probably see it through the front doors as you drive up College Street. Other parts of the home have been decorated for Christmas as well, and carolers have begun to grace us with beautiful singing, so there's a festive feeling in the air that only the Christmas season can give.

Our November/December newsletter Heart to Heart is out, sharing news and pictures from within our walls with all of our families and friends. If you are interested in the home's happenings, let us know, we'd be glad to add you to the mailing list.

Three days a week, Bingo is still one of the highlights of the day here, with twenty-some residents participating in the games. Three people were blackout winners last Friday, Margaret Frank, Jr. Murphy and Judith Winn, but in "Bingo's" Norma Moler dominated with more than twice as many as anyone else that day.

The fireplace in the lobby has been put to good use in the recent cold weather, warming toes and hands and providing a wonderful spot to sit and visit, daydream or have a snooze.

We welcome anyone who would like to come by and warm up with us, have a chat, play a game or just admire our beautifully decorated surroundings. May you all have a week with some Christmas magic in it!
