

Cordell Christian Home's Resident's Digest

by Bonnie Kliewer

Last week and this week we've had just usual fun around CCH, no out-of-the-ordinary holidays or activities. We'll all "go green" next week for St. Patrick's Day fun, though.

Our Bingo Bunch included 27 residents last week, and you could hear "Bingo!" being called out pretty steadily each day. Jesse Locke and Judith Winn were the luckiest ones through the week, each had a total of 18 bingo's! Many blackout prizes were given out each day as well.

The Resident Council will be gathering next week for their monthly meeting. The opportunity to express opinions at these meetings is appreciated by all who attend and the suggestions made are appreciated by the staff members who receive the resident input.

Our Relay for Life team is having a Hot Dog Lunch here this week on Wednesday, the 10th. We have not advertised it around town, but anyone interested in a $5.00 lunch of a hotdog, chili, chips, baked beans and a brownie is welcome to come on by and pick it up!

A large group of folks have been gathering to reminisce about various aspects of days gone by. One week they compared memories while passing around 8-track tapes and cassette tapes, 45 records and LP's, both 33's and 78's.

Then last week it was kitchen utensils and products used for cooking and baking. There's usually lots of laughter and good times shared around this circle looking back at "the good old days".

The good times roll on here at Cordell Christian Home and you are all invited to join us whenever you need a good visit, whether it's looking back, looking ahead or just looking down the street.

Here's an old Irish blessing for you ~

*These things I warmly wish to you-
Someone to love,
Some work to do
A bit o' sun,
A bit o' cheer
And a guardian angel always near.*

Happy St. Patty's Day to you all! See you soon.
