

Cordell Christian Home's Resident's Digest

By Nicole Allen

It is the week of love and friendship here at the Cordell Christian Home. Saturday is Valentine's Day and Friday will be CCH's Valentine's Day Bash! On the 13th a Valentine's Day King and Queen will be named, a party will be thrown, and fun games and activities will take place in the lobby. We are going to make Valentines a fun celebration for everyone!

Throughout this week CCH staff and residents have been casting votes for this year's Valentine's Day King and Queen. Each CCH resident is eligible to win and both of our elected royalty will be given a prize, crown, and bragging rights for an entire year! Last year's winners were Mrs. Leona Maupin and Mr. Jr. Murphy and they both stated that they would love to be chosen again this year!

The crowning of the King and Queen is enough to keep us all excited but the CCH activity team has even more in store for us on Friday! At 2:00 there will be a big party for our residents in the lunch room. Drinks and snacks will be served and the Valentine's Day King and Queen will be announced. Then at 4:00 we will all get to enjoy the activity, Will You Be My Sweetheart, where we will all get to join in on a special Valentine's Day game.

Many assume that Valentine's Day is only fun for couples but we know that is a myth here at CCH. We always have the greatest time during this holiday when we celebrate it together as a family. So come in any time this week and join in on our week of love and friendship! Our community means a lot to us and we would love to have you here during our celebration!
